

Monument Capital Management names Erin D. Knight as executive vice president

Monument Capital Management (MCM), an A-Rod CORP company and one of the country's premier fully integrated real estate investment firms, has named Erin D. Knight Executive Vice President. Knight will be based in Monument's corporate offices in Miami, Florida.

Bringing more than 20 years of diversified experience in finance and banking to her new role, Knight will lead investor relations for Monument Capital

Management's successful current and future real estate investment funds. She will also oversee the firm's overall growth strategy and community relations.

"We are delighted to bring Erin's leadership to the team here at Monument," said Stuart Zook, Principal of Monument Capital Management. "We believe her expertise and breadth of financial experience will greatly enhance our existing services, as we continue to advance in our efforts to expand Monument."

Prior to joining Monument Capital Management, Knight served as Chief Operating Officer of a high-end women's fashion house. Previously, she served as Executive Vice President – Market President Miami-Dade for Stonegate Bank, now known as Home BancShares, where she spearheaded the opening of two de novo offices in Miami, expanded their Miami loan and deposit portfolio, and was a part of the bank's senior management team. Previous to that, Knight served as Senior Vice President-Private Banking Sales Manager for Regions Bank.

"I am honored to join Monument Capital Management at such a pivotal time for the organization and I'm grateful to be given this opportunity," added Knight. "The firm is a respected national leader and I look forward to working closely with the team."

Active in the community, Knight serves as Board Member of the Baptist Health Foundation, the March of Dimes, the Junior League of Miami Foundation, and is Founder of LeanIn Miami, among other organizations. She has garnered accolades such as the South Florida Business Journal's "25 Most Influential Business Women," South Florida Luxury Guide's "Woman of Style and Substance," Miami Today's "Achiever," The Miami Herald's "20 Under 40," and South Florida Business and Wealth's "Up and Comer Award."

Knight earned her Bachelor of Arts in Political Science with a minor in Business from Florida State University and is a Certified Financial Planner™.

KREPS DEMARIA

<https://mhpmag.com/2019/02/monument-capital-management-names-erin-d-knight-as-executive-vice->